

Strategic priorities and plan for Transparency International Kyrgyzstan for 2020 - 2022

		2020	2021	2022
I. Research
1.1. Carrying out of National Integrity System research and advocacy	Assessment of NIS Indicators: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Research carried out -Number of recommendations, - Number of meetings with officials, MPs, NGOs, -Number of articles, appearances on TV, radio, etc. -Changes in laws, regulations, etc. 	Research is completed	Advocacy for recommendations of NIS for 5 pillars	Advocacy for recommendations of NIS for next 6 pillars
II. People engagement in the fight against corruption through ICT and education
2.1. Strengthening the web platform https://askjournal.kg/	The team of Transparency International Kyrgyzstan developed the Anti-Corruption Journal in 2019 in order to inform the population about the provided public services, overcoming administrative barriers and anti-corruption measures. The task of the "Anti-Corruption Journal" is not only to explain the laws to the population and help in interaction with government agencies, but also to provide legal education and develop anti-corruption skills among citizens. Indicators: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Quantity of people visited -Quantity of people receiving information on public services and help 	This web platform more than 200 000 people visited and received help	This web platform more than 500 000 people visited and received help	This web platform more than 1 000 000 people visited and received help
2.2. Strengthening the web platform https://tender.transparency.kg/	Tender Monitor web- platform provides the public with a detailed overview of public spending in Kyrgyzstan by providing public access to information on public procurement. The website calculates bribery risk scores for	Elaboration and launching web- platform	-Recommendations for improvement of the state web – platform	-Recommendations for legislation and institutional changes implemented

	each tender. The team of Transparency International Kyrgyzstan developed 25 corruption risks (red flags) for each tender, where the public, purchasing organizations, businessmen, journalists could monitor. Indicators: -Number of visitors -Number of revealed problems to make legislative and institutional changes -Number of articles on revealed corruption risks -Provision of legal support when needed to the citizens who became victims of violation of freedom of assembly and expression		implemented -Web platform visited more than 20000 people	- Web platform visited more than 40000 people
2.3. Education Citizens and organizations obtain capacities to participate in fight against corruption	Working with organized groups of citizens that have the desire to combat corruption and are ready to take actions on their own or in collaborative networks Indicators: -Quantity of CSOs and CBOs in network -Quantity of trainings, workshops and meetings -Quantity of changed laws and sublegislation	Trainings in Issyk-Kul and Naryn regions for NGOs, journalists, business sector Creation the network in Issyk-Kul and Naryn regions	Trainings In Jalalabad and Osh regions for NGOs, journalists, business sector Creation the network in Jalalabad and Osh regions	Trainings in Talas, Batken, Chui regions for NGOs, journalists, business sector Creation the network in Talas, Batken, Chui regions
III. Monitoring of state bodies
3.4. Monitoring of National Anticorruption strategy	Monitoring and evaluation of general implementation of anticorruption strategy and elaboration of recommendations for improvement of Strategy on the basis of NIS recommendations Indicators: - The course of actions' implementation provided by anticorruption strategy is researched -Recommendation package is sent to relevant bodies	Monitoring of the National Anticorruption Strategy implemented	Recommendations for improvement of the National Anticorruption Strategy elaborated	Workshops, conference and discussions on TV, mass media

	- 5 workshops, 2 conferences, number discussions in TV, mass media are carried out to lobby the recommendations.
3.5. Monitoring of the Public Procurement	Monitoring of the state web- portal; Monitoring of Department on Public Procurement work; Indicators: -improvement of the state web-portal - number of changed recommendations to the laws	Research on public procurement elaboration of recommendations	Lobbying for recommendations to improve the state web portal, legislation and institutional changing	Lobbying for recommendations to improve the state web portal, legislation and institutional changing
IV. Integrity of political parties
4.1. Promotion for integrity of political parties in the Kyrgyzstan	Carrying out of different researches on political parties and advocacy Indicators: -Number of recommendations, -Number of meetings with MPs, political parties, NGOs, etc. -Number of trainings and workshops, -Number of articles, appearances on TV, radio, etc. -Changes in laws, regulations, etc.	Researches on political parties	Advocacy of elaborated recommendations and best practices	Advocacy for changes in legislation on transparency and accountability of political parties